Are you a business or economics student who cares about social and environmental problems?

Are you curious about other people and their knowledge and want to learn from other Europeans?

Are you an agronomy student who wants to make agriculture more beneficial for society and the environment?

Do you believe in your capability to create something new?

Are you a planner, designer or artist who wants to learn how to start a business that helps solve social problems in your everyday environment?

In short, would you like to become a social entrepreneur?

Join us now, because everyone can become an entrepreneur!

Social Entrepreneurship for Local Change is an ERASMUS+ Strategic Partnership with the following core activities:

OUTPUT 1: ONLINE COURSE

The Social Entrepreneurship learning materials will be embedded into a blended learning concept consisting of self-study phases, virtual classroom sessions with peers/experts and virtual team work with fellow students in other parts of Europe and beyond.

OUTPUT 2: REPORT

The report is addressed to academic teaching staff and intends to support teachers in integrating social entrepreneurship into higher education teaching and learning. Relevant topics such as the course design, competence oriented assessment and virtual team work concepts will be presented to enhance the use of e-learning for collaborative and interactive learning settings.

Social Entrepreneurship for local change

A BLENDED LEARNING CONCEPT FOR COLLABORATION, INNOVATION AND CULTURAL DIALOGUE

JOIN OUR LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Social Entrepreneurship for Local Change includes thirteen live sessions on the internet available to the wider global community, as well as interdisciplinary and international group work with students from Germany, Romania, Estonia, the Netherlands and other European countries. The programme also offers students the possibility to receive a grant to attend a 10-day workshop in Arnhem, the Netherlands, hosted by the VHL Larenstein University of Applied Sciences.

CONDITIONS AND CREDITS

Academic recognition for successful completion will be as follows with a maximum of 7 ECTS: up to 5 ECTS for the online seminar (active participation), up to 7 ECTS for those who attend both the online course and the intensive study programme. Successful participation in the online part is a requirement for participating in the Arnhem workshop. However, participation in the workshop is limited. Each consortium university can offer seven grants, covering travel and subsistence. There is no limit regarding the number of participants in the online course. Any interested student, graduate or young professional is invited to attend. All participants who successfully complete the assignments will be issued a certificate on behalf of the five academic institutions involved. Passive, listen-only participation in the online course is also possible, but no certificate will be issued for this participation mode.
